SYNOPSIS

The story begins in the planet Bukha, one of a group of planets-neighborhood, where dark beings steal a diamond that looks like the energetic core of the planet. After 10 years, Bukha has become a ruined planet. The unfair mayor of Bukha gives to the citizens an ultimatum to leave the planet or be sent to a low resources lodge planet.

Not enough far from that planet, Shamza, the intergalactic treasure hunter, detects purple waves emitted from Bukha, her ship takes some damage, so she Lands on the planet. Baker and Tod are two kids natives. They’ve seen the ship of Shamza land on their planet, and met her. Shamza discovers that the radiation waves are caused by the remaining energy left by the diamond, and recon it like one of the treasures that she has been looking for. Baker and Tod ignore the intentions of Shamza, but decide that the only way to save their planet is to return the diamond to its original place.

Now Shamza, Baker and Tod, begin an adventure to recover the diamond, across the galaxy, facing a lot of troubles, and a count-down to save Bukha from destruction.
